

Towson Times

AN EDITION OF THE BALTIMORE SUN

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 29, 2017 | Volume 43, Number 25
TOWSONTIMES.COM

6 NEWS

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 29, 2017 | THE TOWSON TIMES

Sylvie Wolff, 14, center, of Stoneleigh, in the Orokawa Y's Turkey Trot Charity 5k run in Towson on Thanksgiving.

STEVE RUARK PHOTOS/FOR BSMG

William Broom, of Southland Hills, in a turkey hat, watching runners pass.

Turkey Trot run helps Y camp scholarships

Emily O'Toole, 8, and her mother, Megan, of Lutherville, were among the estimated 3,200 runners.

Laura Carey-Blackman, of Parkville, warms up before the run, one of seven Turkey Trot charity events in the Baltimore region.

Leo, a rescue dog owned by Ellen Brinkley, of Ruxton, in a turkey costume for the annual run.

The Orokawa Y's Turkey Trot Charity 5k in Towson raised funds for summer camp and Y program scholarships.

Amy and Trevor Marshall, of Chatterleigh, participated. The 3.1 mile course started and ended at the Orokawa Y.